Glen Raven Expands on Industry-Leading Warranty for Sunbrella® Fabrics

Enhanced warranty includes replacement labor costs to ensure partner and end-user satisfaction

BURLINGTON, N.C. (Jan. 14, 2021) — Glen Raven Custom Fabrics announces an enhanced warranty for Sunbrella® fabrics to include replacement labor costs in all categories, including residential and commercial upholstery, shade and marine applications in the rare instances when replacement fabric may be needed.

With the inclusion of replacement costs, Sunbrella fabrics are backed by the most comprehensive warranties in the industry. Sunbrella is currently the only performance fabric brand to guarantee against loss of color and strength, plus pilling and abrasion, with a five-year limited warranty for upholstery fabrics that now includes labor coverage for the first three years in addition to fabric replacement. The brand's shade and marine fabrics hold an industry-leading 10-year limited warranty with labor costs covered for the first five years.

“For 60 years, Sunbrella fabrics have set the standard for industry-leading performance with fabrics designed for countless applications,” said Dave Swers, president of Glen Raven Custom Fabrics. “Our proven expertise and proprietary technologies allow us to demonstrate our commitment to quality by expanding our industry-leading guarantee and support to collectively benefit our retailers, manufacturers, fabricators and consumers. This gives our partners and end users even more confidence to purchase and apply Sunbrella fabrics to sofas, casual furniture, awnings or boats knowing that Sunbrella stands behind its products and its customers.”
