Embracing ‘Reflections’: Sunbrella and United Fabrics Release Serene New Collection

The contract upholstery collection provides 30 beautiful performance fabric options for high-traffic spaces

BURLINGTON, N.C. (March 18, 2021) — Sunbrella and United Fabrics unveil “Reflections,” their second joint contract upholstery collection to help design professionals discover new opportunities for peaceful and functional spaces. Featuring 30 new durable, soft and bleach-cleanable fabrics in tactile textures and coordinating colors, Reflections is designed to complement the Origins collection and other fabrics within the Sunbrella Contract portfolio.

“Right now, we are all reflecting on the thematic moments that define us and taking time to appreciate the little things in life. This collection honors that idea with nature-inspired motifs that elicit feelings of comfort and peace,” said Greg Voorhis, executive design director at Sunbrella. “We value the opportunity to provide fabrics for a new wave of commercial design that will prioritize versatility with lasting style.”

The patterns in Reflections evoke feelings of serenity while honoring design elements that are increasingly conscious of new demands for commercial environments. Engineered to hold its vibrant color even in high-traffic spaces, the collection is durable, stain-resistant, bleach-cleanable and comfortable, with fabrics that feature soft yarns and bold design.

“We were thrilled to partner with Sunbrella again to develop our second contract upholstery collection,” said Scott Warwick, president and CEO of United Fabrics. “It was important for these fabrics to build on the success of our first Origins collection through new colors and textures that are timely and relevant.”

Standout patterns from the collection include:

- Inga-Boho – acts as an anchor to the collection with a free-spirited nature.
- Palma – featuring a loosely styled botanical leaf, this grounding and reversible graphic represents a yearning to escape through travel and the peace found in nature.
- Daphne – a fresh take on a modern cabana style stripe, it brings a calming sense of order to chaos.
- Miles and Velma – these new solids carry the freeing nature of Sunbrella’s outdoor performance indoors through tactile textures that feel warm and comfortable.

Reflections is suitable for a variety of commercial hospitality settings, from hotels to restaurants and beyond. The exclusive collection is available through United Fabrics. For more information please visit www.unitedfabrics.com/sunbrellacontract.
